BASE BALL COMMENT.

The Wheelings redeemed themselves esterday by winning a close game om the Haymaker aggregation. Par-n pitched a good game and deserved win. To-day the two teams play a subt-header, and the Wheelings come one to-morrow for a four-game series the Vanagatan Lyngmans. A Satwith Youngstown, two games on Sat-urday for one admission.

President Howell returned from Mansaeld early this morning. He says the impire robbed the locals of one of the games at Toledo on Sunday.

The Wheeling managemen, it is said, s negotiating for two or three Atlan-ic league players, including a pitcher.

By defeating Mansfield yesterday the Wheelings send Mansfield back into third place, the Quakers usurping esc-ond position.

Chacingarit was the only western club that won in the National leggue yesterday, and the Reds signalized their eastern trip by advancing from seventh place to a tie with Chicago for fifth position. This is the first time, the Chrcinatais latve ligured in the dirst division for several months. And they'll stay there, for Ewing's men are playing as fast a game as any team in the big leggue. They have now won eleven straight, four of these victories being from the lenders.

BOXING.

Jack McClelland, of Pittsburgh, and JOER MCCIelland, or Pittsburgh, and Joe Hopkins, of Buffalo, N. Y., have been matched to meet at the Metropoli-tan club, September 7, for twenty rounds at 126 pounds. The club wanted McClelland as one of the stars for its season's opening, and submitted for his choice, Kid Goulette, Sam Bolen, or Joe Hopkins. He showed his wisdom by choosing the latter.

Fred Fox, manager of Matty Mat-thews and Joe Hopkins, writes the In-telligencer from New York that he has accepted the Metropolitan's terms for Hopkins' meeting with McClelland, and adds that Hopkins has gone to chanicsville, N. Y., to train for event.
